

VOTES PILE IN BY THOUSANDS FOR FAVORITE GIANTS

Bresnahan Makes Another Gain and Is Eight Thousand Ahead.

MATTY STILL SECOND.

As the Contest Nears Close Friends of the Players Are Getting Busy.

Roger Bresnahan's friends continue to pile in votes for him in the Evening World contest for the diamond studded medal which will be awarded to the member of the Giants who in the opinion of the fans is doing the most to help New York land the pennant.

Bresnahan now has a lead of over 8,000 votes, but that is not worrying the friends of the other players in the least, as they are holding back until the last minute of the race, when they will pile in votes by thousands. In the event of a tie for the prize each person so tied will receive a prize similar to that offered.

Here are some of the letters that came in with votes yesterday:

Inclosed you will find seven votes for Christy Mathewson, the best pitcher in the National League. EDWARD FLYNN.

Driver Fire Department Central Bldg. L. I. P. 8-1 am working hard at the present time trying to beat that other driver, John W. Scott, for Bresnahan.

Inclosed please find thirteen votes for my pal, Michael Doherty. He has put the Giants where they are to-day. DANIEL S. LEARY.

East One Hundred and Fifty-sixth Street.

Inclosed please find the inclosed votes for Archie, the best catcher in the league. He is the only one of the many players that the "great college on the hill" has set forth into the baseball world.

As the grand old man in baseball, who has done many things to better the game, the fans should give their votes for Fred Tenney. FARE, in your duty as a fan of baseball to vote for Tenney. J. R. PAINE.

Inclosed find nine votes for C. Herzog, whom we sincerely hope to have in the lead at the close of the season. The ball I placed the coupons together with is for the

GAS LEAK BLEW UP STORE.

Cooper Went to Investigate and an Explosion Did the Rest.

Samuel Cooper, a furrier at No. 1639 Broadway, asked Walter Roche, of No. 22 West Forty-ninth street, to enter his cellar last night to ascertain if it was possible to establish a gas connection with the furrier shop. Roche came up in a few minutes to report that it was.

His operations had developed a very strong odor of gas. The men, armed with paper torches, went below.

Just before the explosion occurred C. Lorenzen had a pile of antique furniture and oil paintings next door to the furrier. The whole cellar was blown into the street. Cooper's store was not damaged, but Lorenzen's store was.

Inclosed find five votes for "The seventh Matty," the one who is doing the most work to have another pennant pole put in Brush's stadium. Respectfully, J. A. MOHR.

DRAGGED HALF BLOCK UNDER STREET CAR

Man Slipped and Fell in Front of It and Was Killed.

Patrick Cuff, a laborer, employed by the Metropolitan Street Railway Company, was struck by a southbound Madison avenue car at Seventy-eighth street today and killed. He was working on the track with another laborer, when the car came whizzing down the Eightieth street hill. In scrambling out of the way of the car, he slipped and fell. His body was dragged half a block, but he lived for a few minutes after he had been carried into the Presbyterian Hospital.

John Melhorn, the motorman of the car, was arrested and arraigned in the Yorkville court where he was sent to the Tombs on charge. He declared that he was harmless, as he went on going all the way down the hill to where the laborer was struck.

PRAYED DURING HURRICANE.

100 Miles an Hour Blow Brought Maroons Passengers to Knees.

The fruit steamer Maroons, of the New York Shipping and Trading Company, got in to-day from Trinidad, minus her ventilators and most other deck fittings.

On Friday last, at 4 A. M., in latitude 15, longitude 82 west, the Maroons ran into a hurricane that developed a velocity of ninety miles an hour. The barometer went down to 28.5, which is exceedingly bad weather. Only by heroic efforts did the crew manage to keep the lifeboats on deck.

There were ten passengers and they acknowledged when they disembarked that they had prayed for salvation throughout the blow.

FOUR CONVENIENT STORES

October Sales of Brill Clothes

Whoever visits Brill stores, whether to look or to buy, finds therein concrete expression of the Brill policy—better garments—greater values.

Brill garments are better than ever because of more advanced styling, worthier fabrics, and more modern tailoring.

Brill values are greater than ever because of added trade advantages, closer mill relations, more highly developed Brill tailoring organizations, keener appreciation of the fact that volume-business is better for customers and merchant than great profits.

While your attention is directed to the complete general assortment of Brill clothes at $15 to $45, your interest is especially asked for these OCTOBER SALES SPECIALS, involving newest highest standard garments, underprice at the season's very beginning.
